OFFICIAL LABOR PAPER

VOLUME XIII — RICHMOND NEWS, RICHMOND, CALIFORNIA, SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 23, 1920. — NUMBER 122

CARRANZA IS KILLED BY ESCORT

Former President of Mexico Was Murdered by Rebels Under General Herrero, Who Had Accompanied the Fleeing Party as Guard—Senate Summoning Witnesses for Investigation of Presidential Campaigns.

EL PASO, May 22.—President Carranza of Mexico was assassinated by his own men, according to a telegram from General Alvaro Obregon of Mexico City, received by revolutionary agents here today.

His slayers were troops under General Rodolfo Herrero, who formed part of his escort.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The manner of President Carranza's death may inject an unlooked for element into the question of recognition of the new government in Mexico. When President Wilson declined to recognize Huerta after the killing of Madero and Suarez, he outlined a broad policy that the United States would recognize no governments not based on constitutional authority.

PRESIDENTIAL SLUSH FUNDS BEING PROBED

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Frank H. Hitchcock, former postmaster general, has been summoned by the Senate presidential campaign expense investigating committee to appear at the opening inquiry Monday as the representative of Major General Leonard Wood, Republican, and Bernard M. Baruch as the representative of William G. McAdoo, Democrat.

It was said that the committee had had considerable difficulty in ascertaining who should be called to represent General Wood. Altogether some twenty-five representatives of candidates have been summoned, but the committee hopes to complete the inquiry before the Republican convention opens on June 8.

ESCAPED SLACKER IS BEING SOUGHT

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—America's most notorious slacker was again the object of a nation-wide search today.

Grover Cleveland Bergdell, millionaire auto racer, aviator and convicted draft evader, was still at liberaty eighteen hours after he had walked out of his mother's mansion here, where he was supposed to have been under the custody of two non-commissioned army officers.

MERCHANTS TO DISCUSS PROFITEERING PROBLEM

The problem of profiteering in dry goods will form the principal topic of discussion when department store owners of the Pacific Coast meet the merchant princes of the East and Great Britain in San Francisco June 2 and 3 for the first western convention of the National Retail Dry Goods Association.

The gathering will mark the first concerted attempt by the leading merchants of the country to attack the high cost of living as it relate to their industry. An urgent invitation has been dispatched to prominent dealers throughout the West by Marshal Hale, vice president of the national organization, to attend the coming convention.

"This is the first time the National Dry Goods Association has met in the West," said Hale, "and the San Francisco convention will offer merchants of all the Pacific Coast cities an exceptional opportunity to get in touch with the leaders of the industry from the East."

The drapers' western itinerary includes: Denver, May 24; Colorado Springs, May 24; Salt Lake City, May 28; Ogden, May 29; San Francisco, May 30; Los Angeles, June 5; Oakland, June 12; Portland, June 13; Seattle, June 15; Vancouver, June 16.

While in San Francisco the convention delegates will be entertained by the San Francisco Retail Dry Goods Association and various commercial bodies.

ROB CHILD'S BANK

Two youths, both of whom have confessed to the authorities, have been arrested for burglarizing the home of Mrs. Grace Castner at El Cerrito Thursday afternoon. The boys are 16 years of age. Their only loot, officers declare, was 23 cents taken from a child's bank.

BIGGEST TIME EVER HERE JULY 4

Soldiers, Sailors, Bands, Parade, Fireworks, Balls, Banquets, Games, Athletics, Prize Events, All Day and All Night on the Great National Birthday of Liberty, at Richmond.

All committeemen and others interested in the Fourth of July celebration have been summoned by Chairman Charles F. Donnelly to a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 7:30 o'clock sharp tomorrow evening. The meeting will be for the purpose of completing plans for the celebration to be given in Richmond July 3, 4 and 5, and will be the most important meeting yet held with reference to the celebration.

"To make the celebration a success," declared Donnelly yesterday, "it is important that every part of the celebration plans be put into instant operation. There is no time for any delay and what is to be done must be done immediately. Therefore I must have the attendance of every committee member on Monday night."

Success is announced by the finance committee in raising funds for the celebration.

Big Time Coming Up

The News scribe, in company with Messrs. Milnes and Newsom, making up the publicity committee, met last evening and mapped out a publicity plan that is going to let the whole bay region and the up-county region know all about Richmond's grand Fourth of July celebration. Invitations to all the people of this section for many miles in all directions will be extended to pay Richmond a visit and help us celebrate, and the local papers of various towns will be utilized for this purpose. Full sheet, red, white and blue posters will be nailed up fare and wide so all the people will know about, and every possible effort will be made to bring to Richmond a record-breaking crowd on this great and grand occasion.

The various committees are now at work mapping out their stunts, and it can now be safely said that the Richmond celebration will eclipse anything ever before attempted by this city.

Local people must stay at home and celebrate here on that day, and thousands will be brought in from the outside, the object being, aside from the patriotic impulse, to show them the great strides Richmond has been making as a representative city in the past few years.

Get your torpedoes and flags and pinwheels all ready, for things are sure going to whizz all day and all night in celebration of the time when circumstances forced us to put a tin ear on our present allies, the British.

FORECLOSURE ON LOTS

O. Peter Olsen yesterday filed suit in the superior court to foreclose on a mortgage on thirteen Richmond lots which secured a promissory note for $1350 alleged to have been executed by Anna Nelson and Pansy Wyent and which, it is claimed, has not been paid.

RESTRICTIONS NOW ARE PLACED ON GASOLINE

With one company supplying all of the gasoline that is asked and the three others placing restrictions of from three to five gallons on pleasure cars, motorists of the east bay cities yesterday found no trouble in getting enough fuel to supply their needs.

The Shell Company is the one that has announced that it is facing no shortage and has enough gasoline to take care of all of its trade and any that may come in. Its service stations are asking no questions and placing no restrictions.

On the grounds that the needs of the farmers must be met first, and placing part of the responsibility on the railroad strike, the Standard Oil Company, Associated Oil Company and Union Oil Company have limited the purchases of their product.

The Standard Oil Company says: "The less essential use of gasoline must be curtailed in order that the country districts may have enough to produce crops and supply food."

YOUTHFUL BURGLAR IS ARRESTED HERE

Fred Hartkopf is a youthful prodigy all right, but whether he directed his precociousness in an admirable pursuit is to be questioned.

Fred is 12 years old and was recently brought back from Goldfield by police officers who had been told that he had run away from home.

Three days ago he again disappeared from his home in North Richmond and was not heard of until yesterday, when he was found in the Richmond police station, arrested on a charge of burglary.

It seems that the lad had camped in Grand Canyon Park, hiding from his parents, who were searching the countryside for him, and had stayed there until hunger forced him to leave in search of provisions.

Accordingly, on Friday night he stole out of his sylvan retreat about nightfall, and proceeded to Shuman's store at San Pablo avenue and Brier streets, where he broke in and helped himself to the various essentials to a camping expedition. Knives, can openers, bread and other provisions, and also a pair of trousers and a shirt, were commandeered from the civilian establishment by the youthful soldier of fortune.

Shuman notified the police of the burglary, adding that he had seen a strange boy in the vicinity during the last few days and suspicioned that he might be implicated in the affair.

When police officers searched the park for the lad they found him contentedly cooking his meal over an improvised fireplace and looking as if he had lived there for years and meant to stay some time longer. When questioned about breaking into the store he cheerfully admitted the burglary, the police say, and was not at all disconcerted when he was packed off to Point Richmond to spend the night in a cell.

According to the police, the boy will be recommended for a special scholarship in the reformatory school, where he may profit by the surroundings of other notorious public figures, small ones.

MORE UNIONS VOTE TO END STRIKE

Carpenters and Joiners Return to Work at Shipyards, But Boilermakers Will Remain on Strike—Bay Point and Richmond Workers Affected—80,000 Men Are Out Eight Months.

Carpenters and ship joiners' unions in San Francisco and the bay cities yesterday unanimously voted to return to work in the ship yards beginning next Monday.

The carpenters' union is the first labor organization affiliated with the shipbuilding industry to vote to return to work since the union workers struck for higher wages last October.

Thursday evening the Bay Cities Metal Trades Council adopted resolutions inviting the various unions affected by the strike to determine for themselves whether or not they wanted to return to work.

Labor officials predicted yesterday that the action of the carpenters and joiners virtually ends the strike, which made idle approximately 80,000 men.

At a large meeting of the boilermakers' union held in Oakland on Friday evening, the members of the organization voted not to return to work at the shipyards, but to continue on strike until the original demands are met.

According to a statement made at the Pacific Coast Shipbuilding Company of Bay Point if the strike is called off about 1500 men will be added to the force. At the present time 1400 are at work at Bay Point.

Episcopal Club Holds Benefit

Rev. H. Blake Hadlow yesterday stated that more than $40 had been realized towards equipment for the boys' gymnasium at a benefit entertainment given on Friday night at the Bank hall under the auspices of the St. Edmunds Episcopal church.

One of the most interesting events of the evening was a match between Jack Reeman and two of his class in physical training. Linden Siple and Charles Jordan both tried to throw their husky instructor, but were no match for him.

Among the other events on the program were piano selections by Mrs. R. Goldsworthy and Miss M. Brown. Miss L. Frazier delivered a recitation and members of the Episcopal Boys' Club entertained with physical drills and tumbling events.

IMPROVING GROUNDS

Hercules Powder Company has the improvements to the athletic park well under way. A clubhouse with two separate compartments and fitted up with shower baths and other conveniences has been completed. The grandstand has been rebuilt, the grounds leveled off and a sanitary drinking fountain installed.

SMILE—IT'S PAINLES!

"Do you think the motor will entirely supersede the horse?"

"I hope not," replied Farmer Corntossel. "There must be some market fur hay. I depend on what I make on hay to buy gasoline."

Minimum Punishment

Visitor: So your rousin shot and killed a man in a feud, eh? Was he never brought to trial for it?

Kentucky Native: Oh, yes, but every one jest naturally despised the no-account fellow he shot, and so he was fined $5 for hunting without a license.

The Viewpoint

"You made me pay considerably more for this article than it is worth."

"Do you really think so?"

"I do. Don't you call that profiteering?"

"Not when I manage it. When I do anything like that I refer to it as 'salesmanship.'"

EVANGELIST BROWN WILL SPEAK HERE

Rev. C. H. Berry was elected chairman of the general committee on arrangements for union evangelistic meetings to be held here in August, at a meeting of the Richmond Ministerial Union yesterday.

The general committee is to be composed of the ministers and one layman from each of the churches joining in the services.

The meetings are to be conducted by the Rev. E. Brown, a noted evangelist, who will be accompanied by a large party.

A big tabernacle is to be erected on the north side of Nevin avenue between Seventh and Eighth streets.

Sub-committees will be appointed from the membership of the various churches to take care of the details of the meetings, including finances.

Rev. Ironmonger, advance agent of the evangelistic party, was in Richmond yesterday and attended the meeting of the Ministerial Union.

SUIT TO COLLECT FILED

Suit to collect $500 alleged to be due on a promissory note executed in 1916, was filed in the superior court yesterday by Virgil Folletta against Joe Gianetti and Jack Farro. The plaintiff is a resident of Richmond.

SAN PABLO IS CELEBRATING TODAY

Two of the Portuguese Colony's Prettiest Girls Will Be Crowned Queens of the Annual Celebration of the Holy Ghost—Men Revive Old Fashion of Driving Cows in for Barbecue.

Josephine Roberts and Anna Cabral will be crowned queens of the Holy Ghost festival at San Pablo today.

As in celebrations of previous years, the procession to the church where mass is held is followed by the coronation of two of the belles of the Portuguese colony as rulers of the great festival.

On Friday night the men of the town, dressed in the old regalia of other years, went out into the hills and, after the fashion of previous times, drove in cattle for the great barbecue which will be held this afternoon.

Last night there was a gay dance at Maple hall, festivities continuing into the early hours of the morning, and today will begin the feasting and revelry, which does not end until late Monday night.

This festival of the Holy Ghost is the most eagerly awaited event of the year in San Pablo, and Portuguese from all over the county gather at the neighboring town to attend the festivities.

The custom originated away back in the fifteenth century, when Portugal was in the grip of a famine. Elizabeth, who was then queen of the land, sold all her private possessions to secure relief for her poor suffering people.

She became a saint later and when she died a celebration of her sacrifice of jewels and other valuables was originated.

Among other things which this queen sold to relieve her people, was her crown, so at each celebration there are queens chosen for the festival and the whole affair then centers around miniature crowns.

TEACHERS TO HAWAII

Miss Martha Hoey of Martinez, teacher of the second grade, and Miss Say Gilmore, teacher of the fifth grade in the Pinole-Hercules school, handed in their resignations to the board of school trustees Friday. The young ladies will depart for Hawaii soon and will engage in teaching in the island possessions.

CHIROPRACTIC PATIENTS GET WELL

SUNDAY MORNING CHATS

Yesterday a merchant objected to something in the paper, forgetting that his advertisement in it did not carry with it the privilege to shape its editorial policy. This occurs quite often. Then last evening an irate politician got real cocky and told us what he would do to us if we did not treat him real nice and ladylike. That sort of thing rather amuses us than otherwise, after living a lifetime on the plains and in the mountains in early B-A-D days, when we had real sure enough killers come in and paw up the office rug and muss up the furniture, and all that.

The point is that having chewed the rag and scrapped with half a dozen or so, trying to explain to those who are slow pay that excuses and stalls do not satisfy the hungry printers Saturday evenings in lieu of the $300 weekly payroll, why, by the time a fellow gets around along about midnight to grind out these Sunday morning chats, which should be along the lines of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, he has a few doubts about both.

When a fellow gets biffed on one cheek by organized capital in the shape of the paper trust, and then slammed on the other for an excessive expense account by organized labor, he can't very well turn the other cheek, as the Bible admonishes, because he only has two cheeks to turn.

Still, all that is not the fault of the Father, and the sun is going to shine this morning just as brightly and smilingly as though there were no such things as frets and worries. And we all have those frets and worries, no matter what business or avocation we follow. Probably it is to bring out the gold from the dross in our human dispositions. Every good Damascus blade has to be hammered a long time on an anvil before it finally rings true.

* * *

But, irrespective of all the slams and biffs, and the apparent cussedness of mankind, we still have an abiding faith in the cuss. If you dig down deep enough through the crust of the average man you will find some gold. The percentage of men and women who want to do right and be honest and decent is far greater than the percentage of those who do not. The percentage of thugs and thieves, murderers and politicians is much less than the percentage of God-fearing, law-abiding, noble American people. And so, according to the law of averages and percentage, everything will come out all right in time, and if those of us who are kicking around with the rest of the microbes now can't wait that long, our children, or children's children will reap the benefit.

* * *

We do not amount to very much, nohow. Compared to the size of this earth we are each but a pin point, or a speck of dust. And how big do you suppose this earth is? Well, it is a million times smaller than the sun, and the sun is whirling around with a double back-action spark plug among planets a million times bigger than it is. All of which makes a fellow feel like he had shrunk in the wash, like an all-wool garment that ain't.

* * *

I am glad the Chautauqua is coming to Richmond, because it is not only amusing but educational, and if there is any one thing more than another nowadays that people need real bad it is education and enlightenment. If people attended Chautauqua more and attended the movies less, where the villain cuts the heart and liver and gizzard out of the heroine, whose feet are bare clear up above the knee, and if they read more editorial writings in papers and magazines, and less trash and glaring headlines about how Bluebeard hammered the brains out of nine women who did not have much, if any, brains to spare, they would all be much better off, because education and enlightenment are good for us all, no matter how big or how little we are.

* * *

So, after you have chipped in two-bits for the contribution box this morning, and another two-bits for the World Church Movement, if you have $3 left that you can spare, an investment in a season Chautauqua ticket will bring much better returns than cucumbers at 15 cents apiece, with maybe cramp colic thrown in, or sliding down the whirligiggle bumpity-bumps and maybe getting slivers where they ought not to be.

* * *

And if you do not see me at church this morning, friends, because I am working around among the flowers and soil and sunshine, it will not be evidence that I have not a prayer in my mind and heart for every one of you, because I have. God is not in the church all the time—part time He is out among the roses, whose delicate, fragrant petals are His calling cards.

A Cincinnati politician says he doesn't mind the preachers praying for deliverance from the bosses if only the churches do not get too active in voting. When churchmen do not vote as they pray they are wasting time praying.

General Wood says the secretary of agriculture should be a practical farmer. Very true, but we fancy that a practical farmer in the cabinet might get on the rampage some day and completely deologize the department.

Be open-minded, don't engage in useless heated debates with those who differ with you; investigate closely for yourself; think clearly and soberly; don't be misled by the palaver of selfish politicians, and keep steadily at work. Then on election day go to the polls and give 'em the devil.

Tom Taggart will be a candidate for the United States Senate in Illinois. Roger Sullivan is becoming active in Illinois. Governor Edwards is snorting around like a locoed mule in New Jersey. And then there are men who expect William J. Bryan to remain as quiet as a sleeping bull when red taggers like these are flattering around him.

They All Believe In Advertising

THE WISE MANUFACTURER DOES. He has seen advertising make his factory grow from rear alley to city-block dimensions.

THE WISE JOBBER DOES. Try to stock him on an unknown article and hear him say: "How about your advertising?"

THE WISE MERCHANT DOES. He has seen the goods that moved slowly begin to move quickly when advertising brought the customers in legion.

THE WISE CUSTOMER DOES. He has compared the safety, service and satisfaction found in advertised goods with the disappointments of unbranded, unknown articles.

You cannot help believing in advertising. You have the same opportunity to compare and prove. Are you reading the columns of your daily newspapers for the helpful suggestions the advertisements offer?

MANY FEATURES ON VAUDEVILLE BILL

Music is featured on the vaudeville bill at the Richmond T. & D. theater Sunday, with five stellar numbers on the program.

Waters and LaMar head the bill with a comedy singing program of the latest hits. These artists are said to have a repertoire that will keep the audience entertained from the moment the curtain goes up till it is rung down, and is good for several encores.

Miss Rose Lee Ivey will also present a musical number. She is billed as an operatic comedienne who combines humor with the voice of a prima donna.

The third musical number on the bill is Harry Hume, the harmonious singer, whose voice is said to be the very essence of harmony.

Davis and Samuels are blackface comedians who have a brand-new line of chatter and jokes that will be put over with machine gun rapidity.

Ballroom and eccentric dancing by Cole and Dahahy will add zest and variety to a bill that promises to be one of the best seen here this season.

"An Honest Man," with William Desmond and Mary Warren in the leading roles, is the feature picture on the program.

SUIT ON NOTE

Suit to recover on a promissory note of $500 alleged to have been executed by Joe Gianetti and Jack Tarro at Richmond in 1916 was filed yesterday by Virgil Folletta through Attorney H. J. Wildgrube. The complaint declares no part of the principal or interest has been paid.
